John Van Scholten, Senior Vice President- Investments, is committed to helping each of his clients define their long-term financial goals, assess their current situation and then design and implement an investment plan tailored to fit their needs. He specializes in comprehensive investment and retirement planning and believes a superior investment program enhances personal wealth by increasing income- consistent with each client's risk tolerance.

John believes that frequent communication, including regular updates and portfolio reviews, is the best way to understand your changing needs. His primary goal is to facilitate solutions that can help grow, protect or transfer the assets under his care, using the vast resources of Umpqua Investments.

John has more than 31 years of experience in the financial services industry, 25 of which he spent as a Branch Manager, training and developing the careers of other Financial Advisors. Prior to joining Umpqua Investments, John worked at Wachovia Securities and Smith Barney. After earning a bachelor's degree in business from the University of Oregon, John was a Captain in the Marine Corps, serving on the East Coast and in Vietnam and Okinawa
